April 5, 2019

Gagosian Shop is pleased to present a conversation between Glenn Fuhrman, founder of the FLAG Art Foundation, and artist Lawrence Weiner, moderated by Sarah Douglas, editor in chief of ARTnews, on the occasion of the release of The FLAG Art Foundation: 2008–2018. The talk will be followed by a book signing with Glenn Fuhrman.

To attend the event, RSVP to flagshopsrvp@gagosian.com.

Fuhrman founded the FLAG Art Foundation in 2008, with the mission of promoting the appreciation of contemporary art among a diverse audience. Since then, FLAG has presented more than fifty exhibitions featuring close to six hundred artists. Guest curators have included artists, athletes, writers, historians, fashion designers, and museum directors. Ambitious and entertaining solo and group exhibitions have included established figures such as Louise Bourgeois, Mark Bradford, Maurizio Cattelan, Robert Gober, Felix Gonzalez-Torres, Jim Hodges, Ellsworth Kelly, Charles Ray, Gerhard Richter, and Cindy Sherman, as well as a large number of emerging artists.

The FLAG Art Foundation: 2008–2018, which includes a foreword by Fuhrman, documents the first decade of programming at this innovative nonprofit organization. Fully illustrated with installation views of each exhibition, along with a range of contributions from people who have played key roles in FLAG's history (including Chuck Close, James Frey, Jim Hodges, Shaquille O'Neal, and Fuhrman himself), The FLAG Art Foundation: 2008–2018 is a beautifully designed tenth-anniversary testament to a singular institution.
